Excalibur Receives Charter

The long awaited day finally arrived—Excalibur Chapter became official as we received our charter on February 20! Almost 200 people attended our Installation and Charter Presentation. We were very excited to have so many people there supporting our journey and to see us install 23 boys into their offices. Congratulations to Garrison for a great term as our first Master Councilor and congratulations to Dillon on being installed as our second Master Councilor. See inside for more pictures!
